Our Threatening Crisis Management Services are designed to equip organizations with comprehensive strategies for navigating crises effectively. From proactive crisis preparedness to strategic recovery, we provide tailored solutions to address the unique challenges your organization may face.

During the crisis preparedness phase, we conduct thorough risk assessments and develop crisis communication plans, ensuring your organization is equipped to handle any potential threats. Our services extend to training spokespersons, monitoring social media and implementing notification systems to facilitate swift and effective response.

In times of crisis, our immediate response team is activated to assess the situation, gather information and provide legal consultation as needed. We work diligently to draft statements and messaging, develop media relations strategies and engage with stakeholders to manage the crisis effectively.

Following the crisis, our focus shifts to aftermath and evaluation, conducting post-crisis assessments, learning from the experience and implementing reputation repair strategies. With a commitment to legal and regulatory compliance, including documentation and reporting, our services offer peace of mind in the face of uncertainty.

Pricing. Threatening Crisis

BASIC DIFFICULTY LEVEL:

- . Starting price: 1.500 EUR
- . Criteria: suitable for small businesses or organizations with limited crisis management experience
- . Argument: at the basic difficulty level, crisis management services focus on crisis preparedness basics such as risk assessment, developing a crisis communication plan and setting up notification systems. These services are essential for organizations that may not have encountered major crises before or lack structured crisis management protocols. The emphasis is on establishing foundational elements to mitigate risks and ensure a structured response in the event of a crisis

INTERMEDIATE DIFFICULTY LEVEL:

- . Starting price: 3.000 EUR
- . Criteria: geared towards medium-sized organizations or those operating in high-risk environments
- . Argument: intermediate difficulty level crisis management services offer more comprehensive support in crisis response and communication. This includes activating immediate response teams, gathering information and legal consultation for addressing potential liabilities. Organizations at this level may face higher stakes crises that require a more sophisticated approach to media relations and stakeholder communication. The emphasis is on swift and effective response to minimize reputational damage and legal repercussions

ADVANCED DIFFICULTY LEVEL:

- . Starting price: 5.000 EUR
- . Criteria: targeted towards large corporations, multinational companies or organizations with complex operations
- . Argument: advanced difficulty level crisis management services involve proactive crisis communication strategies, online reputation management and thorough post-crisis assessment and learning. These organizations operate in dynamic and regulated environments where crises can have far-reaching impacts on multiple stakeholders. Crisis management efforts require strategic engagement with media, stakeholders and regulatory bodies to protect the organization's reputation and ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements

CHALLENGING DIFFICULTY LEVEL:

- . Starting price: 10.000 EUR
- . Criteria: designed for organizations facing existential threats or operating in highly regulated industries
- . Argument: challenging difficulty level crisis management services are geared towards organizations facing severe crises or existential threats. This may include reputation crises, legal challenges or regulatory investigations. Services at this level focus on reputation repair, continuous monitoring and analysis to navigate complex legal and regulatory landscapes. The emphasis is on adaptive learning and continuous improvement to ensure the organization's resilience and survival in the face of ongoing threat

By categorizing Threatening Crisis Management Services into these difficulty levels organizations can assess their readiness and choose the appropriate level of support based on their risk profile, size and complexity. Each level offers tailored strategies and approaches to help organizations prepare for, respond to and recover from crises effectively.
